

VIOLA

Robin Lemmel starts his musical studies in Thonon les Bains with Enrique Danowicz, then continues his training at the « Conservatoire National de Région » of Rueil-Malmaison in the class of Françoise Gnéri, Soloist Viola in the Opera of Paris.

He obtains a Viola First Prize unanimously in June 2000. Robin Lemmel benefits in particular from the advice of the Artis and Chilingirian Quartets and improves his training in the practice of the String Quartet with the members of the Amati and Talich Quartets.

In 2003 Robin Lemmel joins the Lausanne Camerata conducted by Pierre Amoyal, with whom he gives concerts all around the world. In parallel with his activities in different chamber music orchestras, he obtains in June 2005 his Concert Diploma at the HEM« Conservatoire » of Lausanne in the class of Bruno Pasquier. He then improves his training with Vladimir Mendelssohn at the Royal « Conservatoire » in La Haye.

Viola at the Geneva Chamber Music Orchestra since 2007, Robin Lemmel is also a Violin and Viola Teacher at the Aiglon International College of Villars.

ROBIN
LEMMEL
ALTO

MARTIN
REETZ
VIOLONCELLE

CELLO

Born in Marburg in Germany, Martin Reetz receives several prizes of « Jugend Musiziert » of Germany. In 2002 he obtains the « Künstlerische Diplom » at the « Hochschule für Musik Franz Liszt Weimar » with the highest class Honours.

Martin Reetz continues his studies at the « Conservatoire Supérieur de Musique » of Geneva in the class of François Guye. He receives his Soloist Diploma in 2005 together with the Henri Stern and Denis de Marignac prizes. Between 2006 and 2008, Martin Reetz improves his training with Truls Mork at the Oslo High Music School.

Thanks to the impetus of Norbert Brainin in Weimar, Martin Reetz has a passion for chamber music and appears in numerous festivals and concerts in Europe. He was a member of the « GMJO ». Martin Reetz also performs with the « Orchestre de la Suisse Romande, the Chamber Music Orchestra of Geneva, and the Lausanne Camerata conducted by Pierre Amoyal.

Appointed Soloist Cello of the « National Symphony Orchestra of Ireland » in April 2008, Martin Reetz presently teaches the cello at the High School of Music of Geneva. He often appears as a soloist with the « Internationale Junge Orchesterakademie », the Symphonic Orchestra of Mulheim, the Philharmonic Orchestra of Jena, The Budweis Orchestra, the Geneva Sinfonietta.